SPECIAL NOTICE!!

Please excuse our dust!! The new Air Conditioning system is finally being installed. However, that means we need to be uncomfortable for a few more weeks.

In order to allow the work crew to get this work done as quickly as possible we need to move the daily Masses out of the church and into the Corpus Christi Center. That will be both the 6:30 and 8:00 am Masses Monday thru Friday and the Saturday 8:00 am Mass as well.

Weekend Masses: Saturday 5:15, Sunday 6:30 am; 8:00 am Spanish; 10:00 am; Noon and 5:15 pm will all be held in the O'Callaghan Center which is air conditioned and will be much more cool.

We are asking for your understanding, patience and prayers throughout this process. In the end, we will enjoy a nice cool church during our hot summer months.

THANK YOU.

Tuesday: St. Benedict
 Thursday: St. Henry
 Friday: Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha
 Saturday: St. Bonaventure

FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST

Mark's Gospel account today is built on a double astonishment or amazement: the neighbors and family of Jesus are astonished that he taught in the synagogue with wisdom and worked powerful signs. Jesus, in turn, is amazed that they have no faith in him because they know his origins, not because of any fault with his teaching or ministry. As with many of Mark's passages, we get a rather intimate glimpse here of the human part of Jesus' two-fold nature. To reinforce his point, Mark tells of Jesus' return to his native place, and further points out that he is in the midst of his own family members there. From the very people he expected the most, Jesus received the least. In the day of the Gospel's writing, Mark was attempting to illustrate a lesson to the house of Israel: the God of the covenant expected the greatest faith from the house of Israel, but often received the least. This is a good source for reflection on our part, we who are Jesus' followers today. For the wisdom of Christ to continue and for our lives to be seen as signs of his power, he must expect and be able to find great faith among us. Will he? Can he? Does he? Or is he, once again, amazed by its absence?

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Do you know any adult interested in becoming a Catholic?

Do you or anybody you know need to complete any Sacraments?

If you or anyone you know is interested in becoming a Catholic or in need of completing the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist), you are cordially invited to begin the Inquiry Phase of the RCIA - RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS. Our first meeting, “A NIGHT OF WELCOME”, Introductions and Information, will be held on Tuesday, September 5, 2006 at 7:30 pm in the O’Callaghan Center. Thereafter regular Inquiry sessions will be held every Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm in the O’Callaghan Center. Questions and topics of Catholicism will be discussed. The RCIA Process supports and encourages the spiritual journeys of all of us. It is an ongoing four-step process within our Catholic Community. If you or anybody you know need to complete any of their sacraments, or if you are Catholic who would like to refresh your knowledge of Catholicism you are invited to come and join the RCIA Team and a group of Inquirers who will begin their adult Journey of Faith. Please call the RCIA Office and leave your name, address and phone number. You will be contacted to schedule a meeting before our Sessions begin. If this is not convenient, there is no need to register - just come on Tuesday September 5th and get acquainted with our priests, the RCIA Team and fellow Inquirers. We look forward to meeting you.

A quote from a former RCIA Inquirer:

“I can’t wait for each RCIA Session. It is the best thing that ever happened to me. I was coming from no place and now I am in the best place in the world. The group discussions, what I am learning, the friendships - they teach me the fullness of life. I’m just not the same anymore!” Percy Rhodes.

If you have any questions,
please call the RCIA Office:
Yollie Mancino, RCIA Coordinator
626-330-2269-Ext. 230.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY NEEDS

Are you doing Spring Cleaning?? We are in need of the following items for families currently being assisted: baby strollers; car seats; microwave ovens; and refrigerators. If you have any of these items, please call Raul 626-333-7044.

Do you have Outgrown School Uniforms?? As the school year ends, please remember St. Vincent de Paul Society has needy families with children who would be grateful for the school uniforms your children have out-grown. We will be collecting used school uniforms all summer and will be happy to accept any monetary donations made specifically for this project to buy new uniforms. All donations may be left at the Corpus Christi Center. Thank you for helping us help the needy in our community.
