You are invited to attend a women's silent retreat October 6-8 at Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center. The retreat is given by the Passionist Retreat Team beginning Friday evening and ending early Sunday afternoon. Please give yourself this wonderful weekend with our Lord. The beautiful grounds and peaceful atmosphere makes this a perfect place to savor the presence of God and allow Him to heal and strengthen you for the journey of life. It's a great way to come back refreshed and spiritually energized. The theme for this year's retreat is entitled "The Way of the Cross, Our Way of Life". For reservations call Sylvia 626-968-3461 or Celia 626-675-2752.

DID YOU KNOW??

Reporting Suspected Abuse takes Courage

When any adult in the faith community has reason to suspect that a child is being or has been abused, he or she has a moral (and often a legal) responsibility to report those suspicions to civil authorities. Reporting suspected abuse takes courage. However, adults who take a stand for children and make the call are often responsible for saving a child from terrible torment. Read more about how to identify and to report suspected abuse by reading two pamphlets produced by the Archdiocese, "Respecting the Boundaries: Keeping Ministerial Relationships Healthy and Holy," and "Working Together to Prevent Sexual Abuse." Both pamphlets are available online at www.la-archdiocese.org

For particular help you may call Sr. Sheila McNiff, director of Assistance Ministry at 213-637-7650.

¿SABE USTED?

Informar Sobre Sospechas de Abuso Requiere Valentia

Quando un adulto en la comunidad de fe cree tener sospechas fundadas de que un niño está siendo o ha sido abusado, él o ella tiene la responsabilidad moral (y con frecuencia también legal) de informar sobre estas sospechas a la autoridad pública. Se necesitan valentía para hacer este informe. No obstante, los adultos que toman esta decisión y hacen la llamada por el bien de los niños son los que llegan a salvar a estos niños de un tormento terrible. Lea más sobre cómo identificar e informar sobre las sospechas de abuso sexual en dos folletos publicados por la Arquidiócesis, "Respetando los Límites. Guardando las Relaciones Ministeriales Sanas y Santas", y "Trabajando Juntos para Prevenir el Abuso Sexual". Ambos folletos están disponibles en internet www.la-archdiocese.org.

Para obtener ayuda usted puede llamar a la Hermana Sheila McNiff, Directora de la Oficina del Ministerio de Ayuda, al 313-637-7650.

Trauma Recovery Program

Is a faith based response to adult survivors of childhood abuse and neglect. The Archdiocese is co-sponsoring a conference at Loyola Marymount University on October 3 & 4. We have made a solemn commitment to the protection of children and young adults, and to the healing of the effects of trauma to victims/survivors of childhood abuse and neglect. Cost: $75. 10 CEU's for therapists. Scholarships are available. Contact: Sr. Sheila McNiff, Victim Assistance Ministry at 213-637-7650.

'TIS THE GIFT TO BE SIMPLE

The Shaker hymn describes a circular journey from innocence to innocence with characteristic brevity:

'Tis the gift to be simple, 'tis the gift to be free.

'Tis the gift to come down where we ought to be.

This journey is easier sung about than done. It takes humility and time to recover a second innocence. Titles, positions of honor, money, and power are not requirements of the kingdom of God. Jesus says and demonstrates in today's Gospel that members of God's kingdom must hold in their embrace the most inconsequential of persons, for that person is identified with Jesus. This attitude ran counter to the intuition of the world of Jesus' time, as it does in ours.

The simplicity set forth by Jesus requires the shedding of unnecessary, unimportant, false, and burdensome attachments that earthly power demands. Membership in the kingdom is light enough to put a song in our heart. (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.
