GRATITUDE SHRINE // ALTAR DE GRATITUD

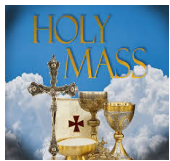

We have a new shrine devoted to all those prayers of gratitude. Some suggestions for these prayers are Birthdays, Anniversaries, Sacraments, Birth of a Baby, Graduation, Gratitude for Healing, or a General Gratitude Prayer.

To submit a prayer, go to the St. John Vianney website sjvhh.org and look for the button "Book of Gratitude". Fill out the form. If you wish, the prayer request can be added to the video that will be shown after our livestream Masses on Sunday at 8:00 and 10:00 am.

Tenemos un nuevo santuario dedicado a todas esas oraciones de gratitud. Algunas sugerencias para estas oraciones son cumpleaños, aniversarios, sacramentos, nacimiento de un bebé, graduación, gratitud por la curación o una oración de gratitud general. Para enviar una oración, vaya al sitio web de St. John Vianney sjvhh.org y busque el botón "Libro de gratitud". Rellenar el formulario. Si lo desea, la solicitud de oración se puede agregar al video que se mostrará después de nuestras misas en vivo el domingo a las 8:00 y a las 10:00 am.

REMINDER FROM ARCHBISHOP GOMEZ

"Effective June 19, 2021, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation in response to the coronavirus pandemic will be lifted for the Catholic faithful of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles." ... "I encourage the Catholic faithful to return to in-person Sunday Mass and the celebration of the Sacraments, especially for those who are in good health"

While watching Mass on line at 6:30 am during the week and at 8 & 10 am on Sunday, and it is time for the distribution of the Eucharist (Communion), you may say the following Prayer of Spiritual Communion:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Únase a nosotros para la misa diaria por Internet, transmitida todos los días (6:30 am) usando YouTube. Vaya a sjvhh.org y haga clic en la foto que dice ver Misa diaria.

Mientras ve la misa y es hora de distribuir la Eucaristía (comunión), puede decir la siguiente oración de comunión espiritual:

Creo, Jesús mío, que estas realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo ardientemente reciberte en mi alma. Pero como ahora no puedo hacerlo sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Como si ya te hubiera recibido, te abrazo y me uno todo a ti. No permitas, Señor, que jamás me separe de ti. Amen

Wear a mask if you are not vaccinated.

Sanitize hands often.

Did you know?

What to do if your child is missing

It is every parent’s worst nightmare — losing a child somewhere. If your child is missing, knowing what to do and acting quickly can help bring him/her home safely. First, call the police. Give them a full description of what your child looks like, what he/she was wearing, when you last saw him/her. Provide pictures if possible. Then call the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children at 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678). If your child is missing from home, check your house thoroughly: behind and in large appliances, in closets, under beds, in your cars. For more information, visit <https://www.missingkids.org/gethelpnow/isyourchildmissing>.

Qué hacer si su hijo está perdido

La peor pesadilla de todo padre de familia es perder a un hijo en alguna parte. Si su hijo o hija está perdido/a, saber qué hacer y actuar rápidamente puede ayudarlo/a a regresar a casa de manera segura. Primero, llame a la policía. Deles una descripción completa de cómo se ve su hijo, qué vestía, la última vez que lo vio. Si es posible, proporcione fotografías. Luego llame al Centro Nacional para Niños Desaparecidos y Explotados al 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678). Si su hijo o hija no está en casa, revise su casa a fondo: detrás y dentro de electrodomésticos grandes, en armarios, debajo de las camas, en sus automóviles. Para obtener más información, visite <https://www.missingkids.org/gethelpnow/isyourchildmissing>.

*When the Sabbath came,
Jesus began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished.*

Mark 6:2

Years ago there was a popular comedian named Rodney Dangerfield, and he would riff about his family life or his work and his catchphrase was “I don’t get no respect!” You knew this refrain was coming, and was part of the punch line, so you waited to hear it and usually laughed or groaned with it. The idea of Jesus being disrespected is a much more foreign feeling. It is easy to forget that Jesus was both human and divine. We can easily romanticize his life and ministry and forget his struggles and the difficulty he had being heard, understood, and respected, especially in his own country. Placed in the larger context of Mark’s story, this was very early in Jesus’ ministry, and the message he was proclaiming was not what the people wanted to hear. Jesus was not speaking about the Messiah that the Jews were hoping for. Add that together with the fact that people are often hardest on their own. Somehow “local boy makes good” just didn’t sit well with them, and they didn’t want to have anything to do with Jesus or his message. Jesus was caught off guard by this.

A MESSAGE FOR OUR TIME

There are times when being Catholic, or even being Christian is very countercultural. It used to be you belonged to a parish, and that was your home, based on your geographic boundaries or ethnicity. But now people change parishes depending on pastors, styles of music, or the Mass schedule. In these days of Covid-19, many who stayed away because of social distancing have not yet found their way back. Many never recovered from their disillusionment over the abuse scandals. Others left Catholicism for non-denominational churches, or explored other paths such as Buddhism. Still others consider themselves “spiritual but not religious” or are labeled “nones.” Frequently, families who once sat together every week in church are now scattered all over the spiritual spectrum. In the face of all this, let us pray for the strength of Ezekiel to continue to preach our faith by the lives we live, despite everything in our culture that rebels against religion. May we have the wisdom of Paul to persevere despite our weaknesses and the thorns in our side. And like Jesus, may we always find the faith we need to endure, even when those around us do not.

FEAST OF FAITH

Little Mysteries

Two small rites—or, as one liturgist has called them, “little mysteries”—accompany the preparation of the gifts. The priest or deacon takes a small cruet of water from the server and adds a drop of water to the wine. Then, after the elevation of the chalice (and the incensation, if incense is used), the priest washes his hands. Both of these actions were at first practical, matter-of-fact realities: in the ancient world the wine was usually quite thick, and was generally mixed with water before it was drunk. And in the early church, when the faithful brought forward a great variety of gifts at this time, there was a definite need for the presider to wash his hands!

But now these rites serve a purely symbolic function. The mingling of the water and wine is accompanied by a prayer that speaks of the wonderful exchange of the Mass, the mingling of Christ’s divinity and our humanity. And as the priest washes his hands, he prays words of supplication from Psalm 51, acknowledging his own sinfulness in the presence of the assembly before he dares to approach the altar for this most sacred action.—Corinna Laughlin,
